

Washington should spend its time worrying about real issues.
I am a consumer and wish to continue spending my hard earned income on the services that I wish.